Thesis Advisor Approval Form

Please note that the role of the thesis advisor is to advise the student on his/her research as it relates to the Master’s thesis. In addition to advisement throughout the thesis research and writing process, the advisor is responsible for reading and providing feedback for the thesis, as well as approving and submitting it to John C. Mutter, the Director of Graduate Studies.

________________________________________________________
Student Name

_______________________________________________________    __________
Student Signature       Date

________________________________________________________
Advisor Name and Department

_______________________________________________________    __________
Advisor Signature       Date

________________________________________________________
DGS Signature          Date